

NO HOME FOR THE POLAR BEAR

I'm a polar bear, I'm a polar bear, I'm a polar bear, I'm a polar bear

Why don't you care?

I'm a polar bear, I'm a polar bear, I'm a polar bear, I'm a polar bear

This life ain't fair.

Because of all your carbon ways, my polar land has hotter days. Ohh-

Your greenhouse gases really stink, they make the ice crack and shrink. Ohh-

With every passing day my home is melting away.

I'm a polar bear...

Exhausted swimming round and round, I long to walk on frozen ground. Ohh-

A tiny iceberg rescues me, but takes me further out to sea. Ohh-

With every passing day my home is melting away.

I'm a polar bear...

I may look like a cuddly dude, but man have I got attitude. Ohh-

Are you so blind you cannot see, the way you live is killing me. Ohh-

With every passing day my home is melting away.

With every passing day my home is melting away.

GLOBAL WARMING

Winter, spring and summer and autumn, wait for leaves to cover the ground

Snow and sun take turns to remind us, Nature's seasons circle around

Every year the winter gets warmer, Ozone layers drifting apart.

Ice caps melting, sea levels rising, Waiting for new patterns to start

Repeat verse 1
