

Dear Year 5 Families,

I hope you are all looking forward to starting the new school year tomorrow – I know I definitely am!

For the first half term, our class theme is going to be called 'Through My Eyes'. This theme is going to be all about the civil rights movement, in America, in the 1960s. We will be covering 3 main figures; Ruby Bridges, Rosa Parks and Martin Luther King Jr.

The main difference in the classroom this year is that the tables are set out in rows. Most of the children will be familiar with this, as this is how it was set up for transition. However, there are some pictures below in case you or the children would like to see what the classroom looks like.

I look forward to welcoming the children tomorrow,

Miss Ellison
